MOUNT ST. MARY'S COLLEGE

10 Chester Place
Los Angeles, Ca 90007

To Our Great Faculty and Staff

"Back in the day ..." It's likely that we have heard this many times from our parents, Mount alums, faculty and staff. They remember the "ol' days" and how things were back then - some good and some bad. The one thing that seems to always hold true for them is looking back on their days in college and remembering the person or people who made such a big difference in their lives. Now it's our turn. We remember our faculty and staff from this year. Many go unrecognized for all the hard work they put into our school, the students, and the Mount community, yet they continue to give so much.

Faculty members spend countless hours trying to prepare us for the next test or help us during their office hours. Sometimes they work around our schedule to make sure that we get the help that we need. Our advisors take the time to prepare us for each semester and to talk about what the future holds for us. Staff in the Business Office patiently walk us through our statements to assure we won't be charged additional fines for late payments – fines they know we can't afford to incur. Financial Aid counselors make sure that our loans come in on time or confirm that our scholarships are still valid for the year. We see many of these very special people everyday, but do we really see the person?

Do you ever wonder how the lawn always stays so neat? Or notice how the bushes are always perfectly trimmed? Do we think about the drivers who brave LA traffic every day - all day long - to make sure we get safely from Chalon to Doheny? The Housekeeping and Facilities staff work so efficiently that we rarely even notice that each and every work request is flawlessly completed.

Let us take a moment to thank every faculty and staff member for their hard work and dedication to the Mount. They do so much for us and now it's time for us to give them the thanks they deserve. Let's reminisce about our "good old days" and pay tribute to those special individuals that made such a big difference in our lives over the last year. We say thank you for all of your dedication and hard work. It is greatly appreciated!

Orientation 2006

Orientation

A time to meet new people and to start a new chapter in one's life with the help of faculty, staff, orientation leaders and others. ISEA students got a head start, but everyone began a new life at Mount St. Mary's College on the same level. This was a great, new-found experience for the fresh students to get to know the Mount, and find themselves as a new college student.

1. Finding new friends to enjoy with during a mov in the circle.
2. Smiling for the camera while waiting for speaker in the Little Theatre.
3. Esther Granados finds new friends while cleaning up the beach at Stanta Monica.
4. Students sharing a moment on the grass.
5. New students waiting eagerly to start their orientation.
6. Getting pumped up with a fresh start in a kickboxing class in the Lecture Hall.
7. A group of freshmen are waiting attentively f their next speaker.

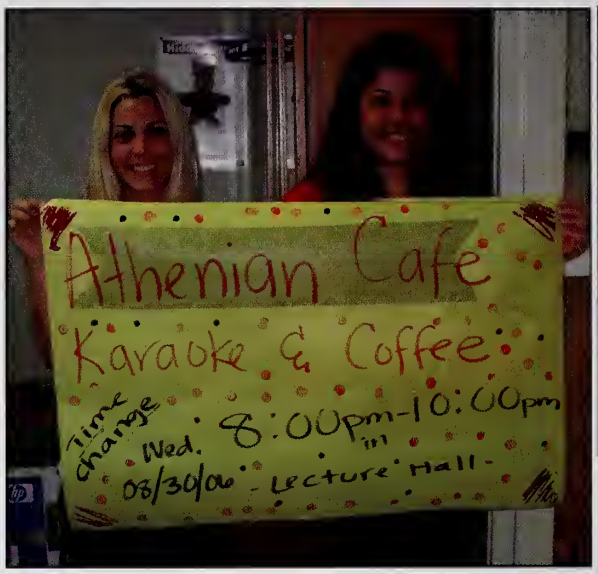
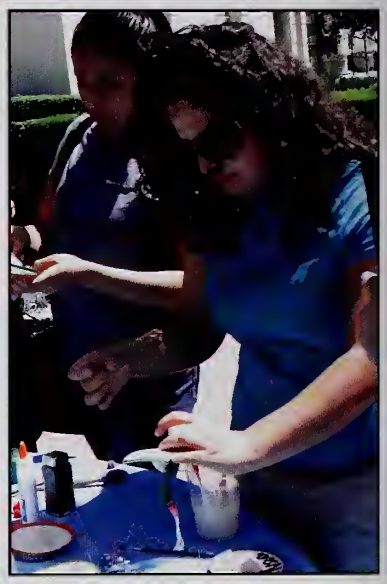
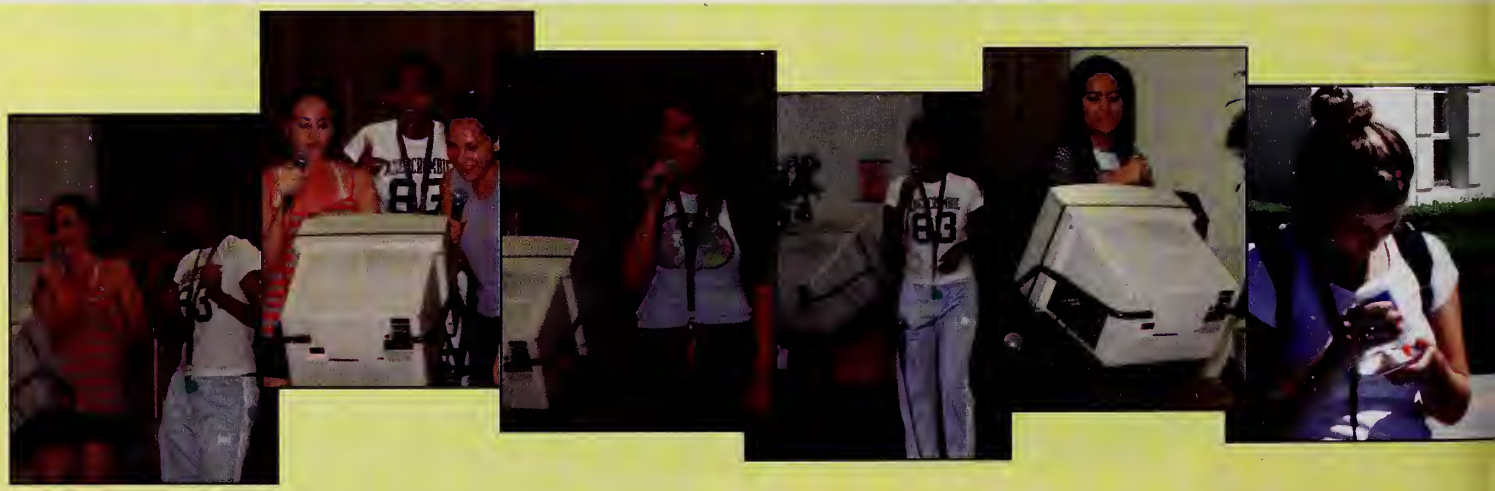
Welcome Class of 2010

WELCOME WEEK

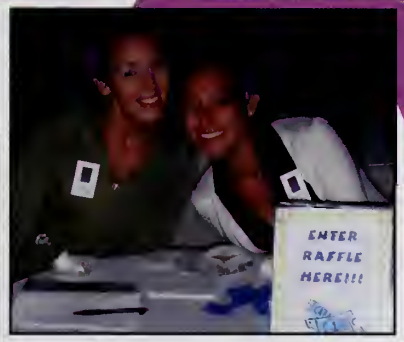
From arts and crafts to karaoke nights, the Mount provides various activites for students to mingle with old and new faces.

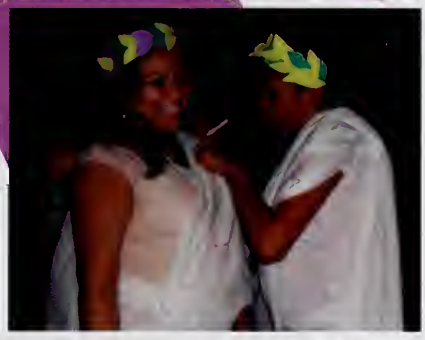






Free Athena!!





Free Athena!!

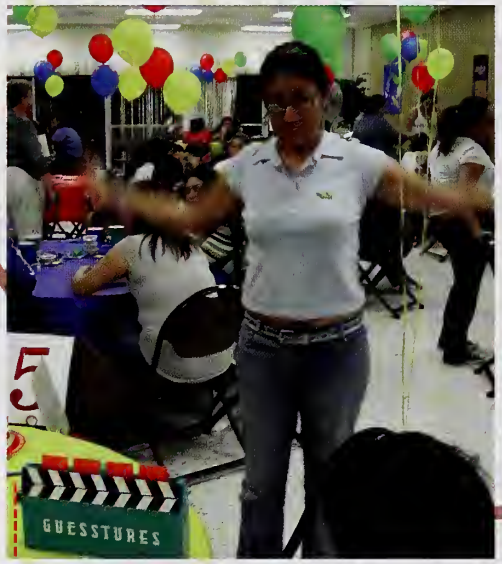
Long ago in a land far, far away the Greek Gods roamed the earth and guided the mortals. The Goddess Athena, who had particular strengths in warcraft and wisdom, challenged Poseidon in a contest to win the affections of the Greek people. Using her natural gifts, she provided the Greeks with an olive tree, thus giving the gifts of shade, oil, and olives to her p eople. Poseidon provided the city with proximity to the ocean, a gift that simply could not compare to the enduring sustenance that Athena gifted to the Greek people. Athena therefore beat Poseidon in this contest and, in a great gesture of thanks, the Greeks named the city Athens after her.

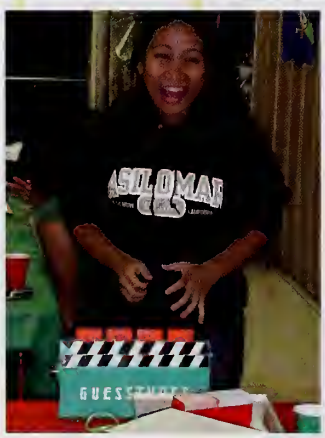
Recently, Poseidon learned that Athena is not only the goddess of the city of Athens, but also the mascot of the beautiful and almighty Mount St. Mary's College. Athena symbolizes the strength, wisdom, and diversity that makes the Mount Community so special. Poseidon, so overcome with jealously, placed a spell on Athena, rendering her silent and obscuring her from the public eye.

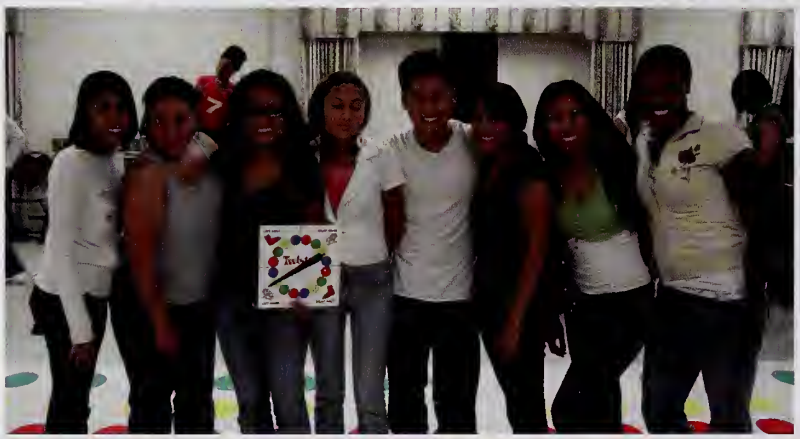
Like the Athenians who vowed to always protect Athena and her city of Athens, it is your duty as an MSMC Athenian to save her, and let her voice be heard once again. It is your duty to FREE ATHENA!

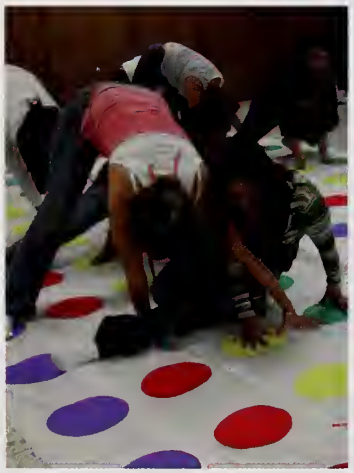
ISAE'S Fall Fling

ISAE enjoyed a night of FUN & GAMES at the annual ISAE Fall Fling. Students took a break from the stress of studying and played Loteria, Catch Phrase, Pictionary, Jenga, and Outburst. We also played what we think might be the WORLD'S BIGGEST game of Twister ever!! In the end ~ only a few were left standing! As always, everyone is a WINNER with ISAE!

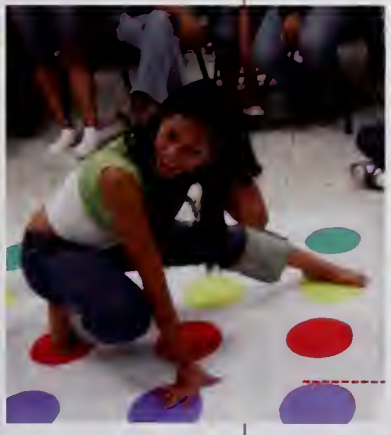


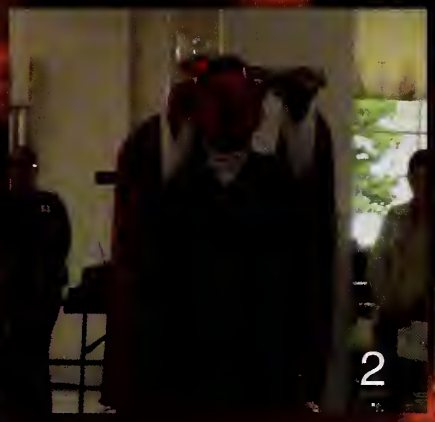






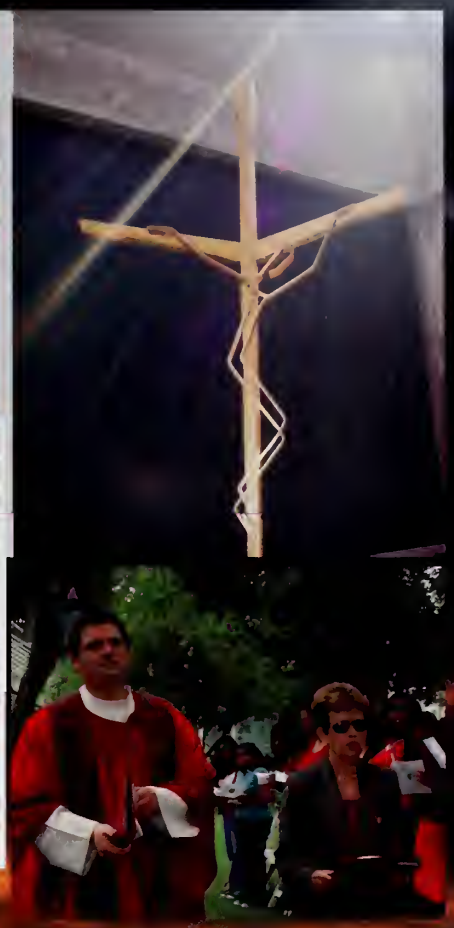
PICTIONARY





1. Monika Vega iniaties the Holy Spirit mass with incense throughout the campus center.
2. The presider, Fr.George O'Brien, Presider and Chair of the English Department, consecrates the bread and wine.
3. The Campus Ministry team cheerfully pose after their hard work and dedication towards the Mass of the Holy Spirit.
4. Dr. Jacqueline Powers-Doud, President of MSMC, shares her reflection with the Mount Community.
5. Elizabeth, Rayna, Maxine, and Alina pose after their prayerful dance during the Preparation of the GIfts during Mass.

Mass of the



1. The procession begins with Dr. Mari Wadsworth leading the procession with the cross.
2. Shanat Lopez, Monkia Vega, and Maryann Nguyen glee with happiness as the mass begins.
3. Mounst students enjoy their meals that are full of Holy Spirit.

At Catholic colleges around the country, the academic year begins with a Mass of the Holy Spirit - with the college community gathered to call on the Spirit (whose symbolic color is red) for guidance, wisdom, creativity and inspiration in the year ahead. At the Mount, we celebrate this Mass in October, honoring the Sisters of St. Joseph, who were founded in that month!

DOHENY!

Haunted Halloween Campus

This annual event was held at our Doheny Campus on October 31, 2006. Around 5,000 children from the surrounding neighborhood came dressed in their favorite costume asking for treats.

This event is possible with the support from the College as well as outside sponsors and friends by donating thousands of pounds of candy and decorations for this event.

The campus in transformed into a spooky haunted (but fun and safe) place for all to enjoy.

Etiquette Dinner

"Etiquette is a code that governs the expectations of social behavior, according to the conventional norm within a society, social class, or group." (Wikipedia)

Viewed as a way to act and conduct one's self, Mount students had the opportunity to get a lesson on Etiquettes and formalities with a special and formal dinner. Sponsored by Career Services.

The Charity Ball was a special event planned by ASB to raise funds for charitable organizations. Two charities were selected, the Breast Cancer Foundation and Catholic Relief Services. It was an evening of elegance where students and their families, faculty and staff enjoyed an evening of dinner and dancing. All proceeds from admission went to these two charities. We raised a total of $600.00

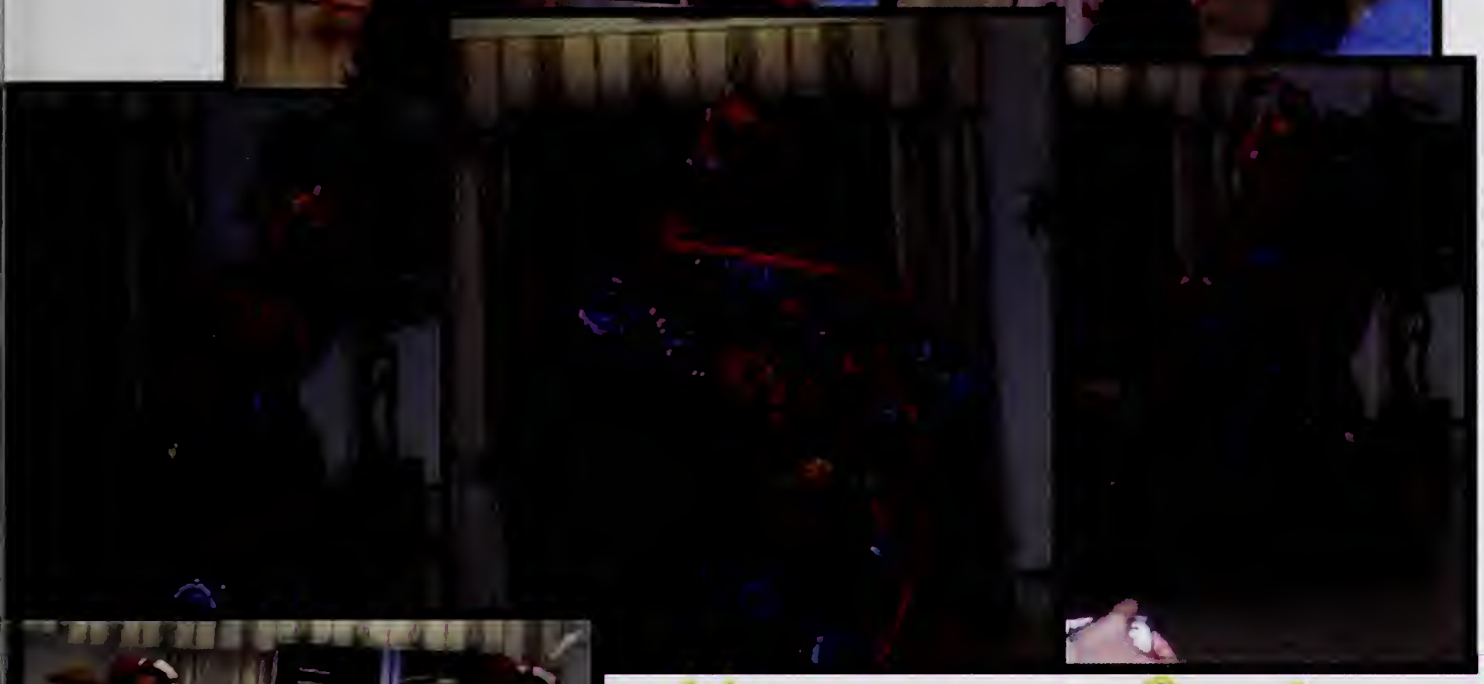
Lighting of the Circle

December 4th, 2006

Lighting of the Circle is a traditional event held at the Mount the first Monday of December to celebrate the holiday season. This is truly a festive night where students, staff and administrators gather at dusk to ring in the holiday season with caroling karaoke style amidst the sparkle of a decorative Circle filled with lights, lawn ornaments, tasty treats and hot cocoa to spread holiday cheer.



Nuestra Cultura

... was hosted by the Latinas Unidas group. Delicious food was served in the Campus Center where students and family members enjoyed tamales, popusas, pastas, salads followed by delicious desserts. Dancers performed traditional dances such as well-known folkloric dance. More dancing continued on in the circle as a live band played Salsa and Cumbia.

December

Students and their family celebreate their academic achievement and personal growth from the few years that they were at the Mount.

Grads 2006

Hugs, kisses, cheers and tears are all part of the day. Although it is a day of celebration, it is also a sad day. The friends and memories once made are now left behind, yet they are left with the hope that despite the separation some of these friendships will continue. They leave with the thrill of what awaits them in the future.
This long awaited day has come. Graduation is here.

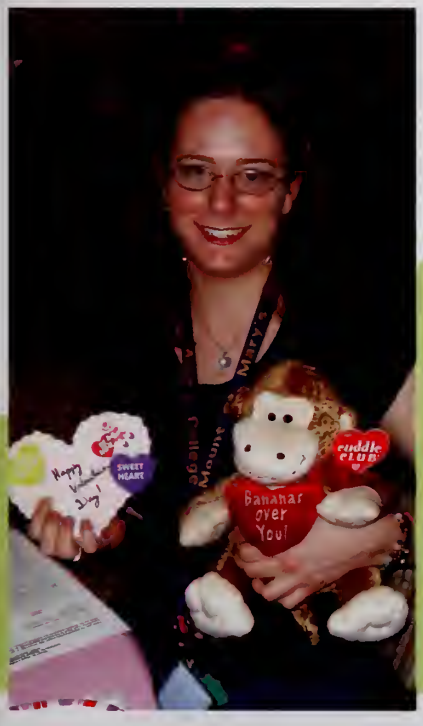
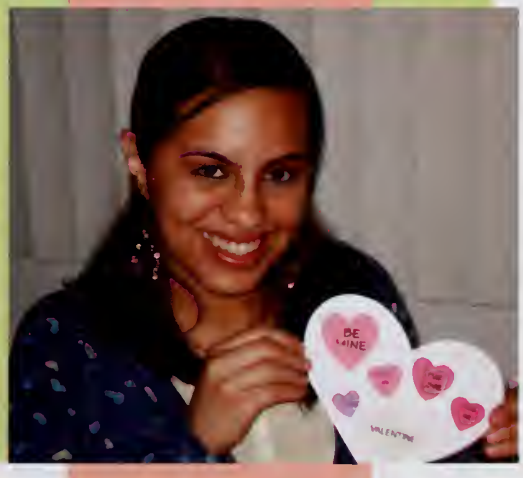
ISAE's Annual "Be My Valentine"

From Karaoke to fun crafts and games and plenty of food, ISAE students partied the night away. They sang their hearts out, made Valentine grams for each other and received kisses from a stuffed frog, a soon to be Prince Charming. Who needs a true valentine when we have each other?





Bravo Dinner

The JSAE Bravo Banquet honors outstanding AA and BA/BS graduates. JSAE graduates are not only a source of pride for Mount St. Mary's College, but also for their families and communities. The students honored at the banquet are shining examples of persistence, diligence, and ingenuity. Each of these women is a success story and a builder of her own future, sharing her gifts with the world. These graduates are a testimonial of the JSAE program mission - assisting participants to persist to graduation and helping them move into society where we know they will make important contributions.

Mardi Gras

On the day before Ash Wednesday and the Lenten season of fasting, prayer, renewal and service, we celebrate "Fat Tuesday" or Mardi Gras -- when we party away, eat decadent foods, dance and play, wearing masks to take on another identity! At midnight, it's time to take off the masks and begin to take a good look at our true selves...

ATHENIAN DAY

Athenian Day came once again to the Chalon Campus to test the physical and mental abilities of students and staff. The teams competed in various activities throughout the warm and sunny day. It all started with an early warm up with team cheers following. This year, the Icee Peanuts took the first place title with the Chalon Aces winning the Spirit Award.

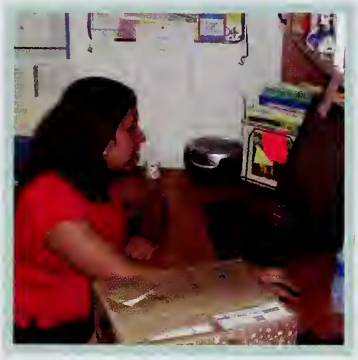
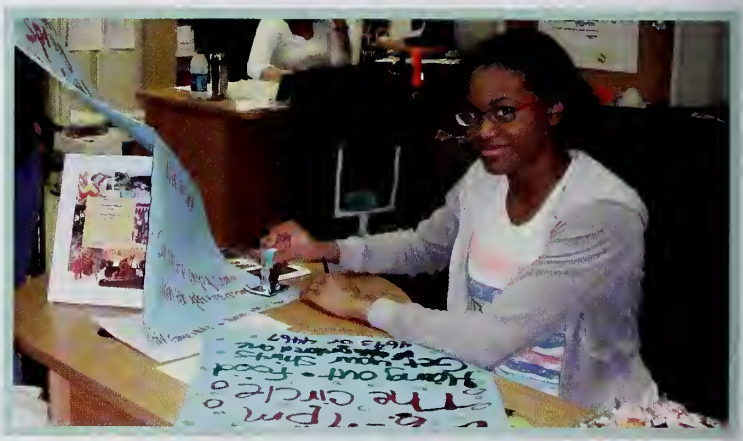
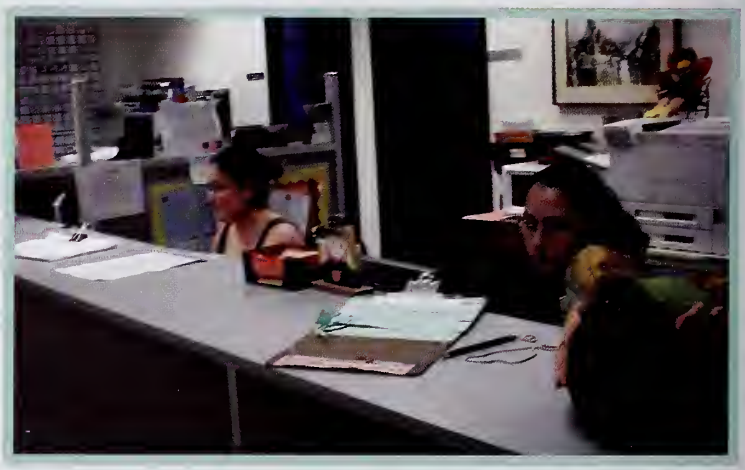
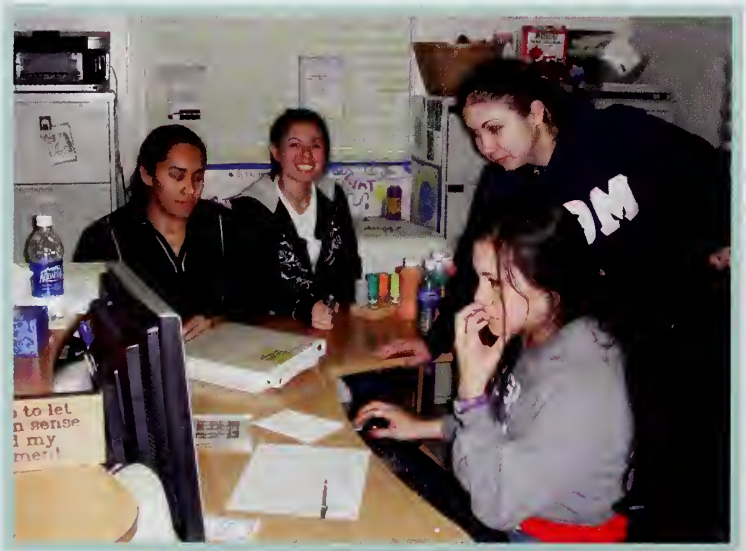
Working hard for the money!









Some student workers are working to pay for tuition, while others pocket the money and use it to pay for books and supplies. But no matter what, these students always give 100% in whatever they do, from answering phones to lugging boxes up to the fourth floor of Humanities.

Almost every office on campus has student workers, and they are there to help the professional staff in whatever they need, whether it be little things or big projects. They are there and give it their all. So to all the student workers...

Thank You!

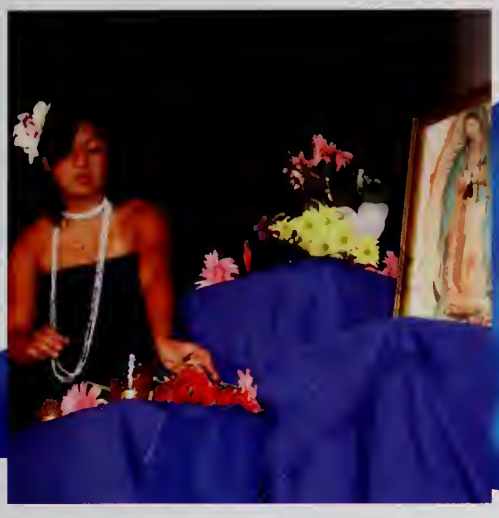
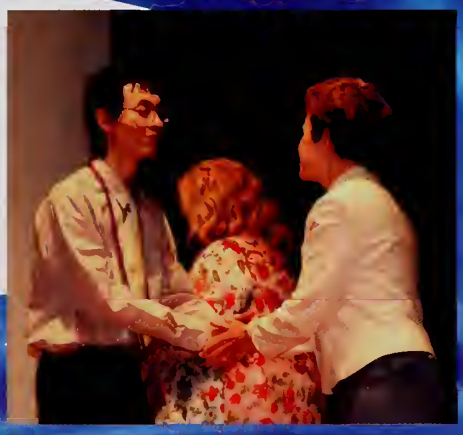
Celebrating Excellence in Student Involvement

Mary's Day

Mary's Day is the annual celebration in which the college honors the woman for whom it is named- Mary, the mother of Jesus. Throughout the years, Mount St. Mary's College has honored Mary in recognizing students who exemplify her spirit of courage, inspiration, service and dedication to the development of their unique gifts. As family and friends, faculty and administration join together in celebrating the achievements of Mount students, we also join together with Mary, who walked new paths with graceand determination, bringing life to the world-- and who surely delights with us in students who do the same.

The President's Award is the college's most prestigious award. It recognizes those students who were consistently involved in the activities of the college and who have personally benefited from the college experience. Breadth of interests as well as scope of responsibilities are included in the criteria for this award. Recipients are also known for their generosity of spirit and personal warmth. This year's recipients were (from left to right) Bev Suson, Christina Sundermeier, Cindy Rivera, Eliner Penn, Maryann Nguyen, Tiffany McGrew, Eunice Lee, Brooke Hogan, Monique Grier, Maxine Chieng, and Ammee Amboya.





Laurel Day

More than 100 students received honors at Laurel Day 2007, the end-of-the-year celebration for MSMC's Associate of Arts Program held at the Doheny Campus. Modeled on the ancient Greek custom of bestowing laurel wreaths on the heads of victors in the Olympic games, this day is a time to recognize graduates and those receiving special honors.

While in D.C. these students meet with and learn from women leaders making and influencing public policy at some of the highest levels in Congress, courts, federal agencies, corporate sector, policy research and advocacy organizations, and the media. The MSMC students selected to participate this year are: Therese Benson, Kathleen Castellanos, Gricelda Ceja, Pamela Flores, Diana Godoy, Claire Marie Juan, Karina Macias, and Jane Soto.

I would like to take the time and thank everyone for such a wonderful year. Steve, Mar, Angela, JD, Diana, Shiela, Olie, Drea, my Pi Theta Mu girls, and everyone else that was there this year, thank you so much. I couldn't have done it without you. I know some of you are leaving us, and I would like to congratulate you and I wish you luck ineverything you do. As for the remainder of us, lets just make our last year the best.
Love, Sasha

Para Mama y Papa,

'Ama, 'Apa gracias por todo su apoyo en todo el transcurso de mis estudios. Sin ustedes hubiera sido imposible lograr esta meta, nuestra meta. Ahora, nos graudamos los tres. Comparto este diploma con ustedes porque ustedes tambien so lo han ganado, con mucho esfuerzo, y el sudor de su frente. De cual estoy infinitamente agradecida. Quiero decirles que fueron mi mas grande inspiracion para seguir adelante dia a dia. Y si hubo tiempo en que me quise dar por vencida, y no lo hice, fue por ustedes. Porque no los podia defraudar. Porque no se lo merecian. Porque ustedes siempre se han sacrificado por mi y por mis hermanas, y nunca me han fallado. Y ahora me tocaba a mi hacer el sacrificio por ustedes, y no les podia fallar. Espero esten felices y orgullosos porque es lo que mas me importa, eso vale mil veces mas que este diploma. Ese es mi anhelo, ganarme su orgullo, su felicidad, y su repeto como ustedes se han ganado el mio por siempre.

Thank you for your hard work and dedication!

Leslie,

We are so proud of what you have accomplished and so excited to see that all of your hard work and dedication has now culminated in a goal that you set for yourself many years ago. We are so pleased to see you blossom into a wonderful, thoughtful, and dedicated person who holds herself and others to high standards, unwilling to compromise your principles for short term gains. You have always been willing to try new things, never afraid of failure or the effort required. Now that you will soon begin your career, we know that you will find tremendous success because of who you are - responsible, hard working, caring, and sensitive - the ideal nurse.

We love you. PUME

Papá y Mamá:

La ternura, cariño, fuerzas, carácter, persistencia, comprensión, ayuda y amor me ayudaron a ser una persona llena de respeto y de bien para mi familia y la sociedad. Ustedes inculcaron en mi, los principios morales que han guiado mi vida desde mis primeros días haciéndome una mujer justa y siempre buscando ese camino que conlleva a la felicidad.

Las memorias de mi niñez, juventud y de mi edad adulta han sido atesoradas en mi corazón, como un fino diamante que brillará sin importar el tiempo y la distancia. Gracias Chata y Chato por todo lo que han hecho y harán por mi. Los amo con todo mi corazón.

MOM

Te extraño Abuela. Nunca olvidaré tu sonrisa y la calidad de mujer que fuiste. Aunque no llevo tu apellido, sembraste una semilla en mí que ha florecido en una primavera sin fin.

Ong, Bo, Me, Phi, Phong - my family. My flesh and blood. We've been through lots. Ups and downs. You've supported me through it all. Not much may have been said and done but you were there for me and all I really needed to know was that I will always have a family to come home too. I love you like no other and you are my inspiration.

Mama G, GK, GG - my "mothers", my mentors. You've guided me and supported me and was with me through my 4 years of college. You've seen me grow from a quiet little girl into a strong and ambitious young woman. You helped create that and I am truly greatful. Campus Ministry became a second home, a second family and I have you to thank. I know this is not the end and that our path will continue on far beyond college because I know that when you are all 100 years old, you'll need a ride to Disneyland.

Angela, Sasha, Big Sis Shelley, My littles Lil Ros and JD, PTM Eboard and the sisters, CM, Yearbook - So much has happened and yet it's so hard to soak it all in. I dont want to ever forget. My college years have been awesome and something that I will cherish forever. Thank you to everyone who has inspired me and pushed me to keep going ... especially my girls, the yearbook Trio, Bro-Bry, Sher, my apartmates, Faculty and Staff ... and everyone who I truly love.

Love always ...
